

ROUND 1 INTERVIEW: BRITTANY LINCICOME
Friday, June 26, 2015

MODERATOR: All right, everyone. I would like to welcome Brittany Lincicome to the media center. 6-under 65 out there. Took a while but got to feel pretty good about that.

BRITTANY LINCICOME: It was good. You had the delays, especially on the last delay we had a half or I had a half a hole to finish, so was pretty bummed to have to wait a couple more hours to get it done. But all in all it was a great day and really happy with the way I played.

MODERATOR: Fourth two weeks ago at KPMG. Has your game ever been in this good of shape?

BRITTANY LINCICOME: That's a really good question. I don't think so. Actually, going into today I was really nervous. I played the pro-am yesterday and even the practice round I played Tuesday morning with Anna Nordqvist, I felt like I had no clue where the golf ball was going. So even going to the range this morning I told my caddie, I'm like I don't feel good, I feel like there's something off, there's something wrong. Then had a couple good saves early, which really helped. I made a couple of 15-footers to save par and it kind of was just the momentum I needed to kind of get the round going.

Q. Brittany, you had it going there at 17, then the delay. You got it back going again after the delay. I mean, how much did that affect you? It seemed like not so much.

BRITTANY LINCICOME: I didn't even notice. You guys know me, I'm pretty even keel and just out there having a good time. Had a good group. Haven't played with Mo Martin in a long time so it was nice to kind of catch up with her a little bit. It's weather so there's nothing we can do about it, it's out of our control. I went in the locker room after the second delay and had a foot massage for like 30 minutes, some nice lady in there. You know, just kind of the way I am and it was just nice. I wish we had a deck of cards, it'd probably have topped off the day.

Q. You talked about the par saves you made from 15 feet. What about the last putt you made there on 9, how close?

BRITTANY LINCICOME: Yeah, right when I hit it I knew it was going to be short. I even have in my yardage book that it was a little bit slower, and obviously after the rain, you know, obviously I didn't want to blow it by the three feet and have to have that tester coming back. But right when I hit I knew it wasn't hard enough, especially when it's right on line, it's kind of a bummer. But just happy to be finally done with the round. Going to go shower, get some dinner, and probably sleep in until 2:00, 3:00, 4:00 tomorrow.

Q. Is that an advantage tomorrow, the fact that you did get the round all the way in today?

BRITTANY LINCICOME: Yeah, I think it kind of works out for everybody probably the same. Nobody had to play in rain, which was really nice. But I won't finish my round tomorrow, which means I'll be finishing on Sunday at some point. So everyone's going to have to do it and you know it's going to happen and play as many holes as you possibly can and take it for what it's worth.

Q. This isn't a venue where you've had a lot of success in the past. What was different today? Did you do something different this week to prepare?

BRITTANY LINCICOME: I have no idea. I love the golf course. The golf course is fun to play. It's not necessarily a long hitter's course because I find myself hitting a lot hybrids and 3-woods off the tees. Was driving it well and hitting it well off the tee, which really helps. But yeah, you know, I come here every year and I'm like, man, this is going to be my year. I housing, it's really fun to hang out with them, and it just never seems to kind of go my way, so maybe this is my year.

Q. Is it better not having to play this right after the U.S. Open, too?

BRITTANY LINCICOME: That helps, yeah. Any tournament after the Open or any major, you're mentally fried. You just want to kind of put the clubs away and just shut everything off. Where it fell on the schedule this year was perfect in my opinion, a week off and this event and a week off, it's really nice.

MODERATOR: Any more questions for Brittany? Perfect. Thank you for coming in.

BRITTANY LINCICOME: You're welcome.
